

ACTIVITY
7

Shall We Trade?

The expedition members could not bring everything with them they would need on such a long trip. Along the way, they traded for food, information, guides and even transportation. When the expedition arrived here, they traded with the Chinook and Clatsop people, who were skilled traders. In the exhibits, see if you can find the items they traded and circle them.

